The Officials Code of Ethics

- The policy of the National Officiating Accreditation Scheme (NOAS) is that the responsibility for the ethical conduct of sport in Australia rest equally with officials, players, administrators, coaches, spectators, media, educators, parents, government, sponsors, team owners.
- It is the duty of the sports official is to act as an impartial advisor and arbitrator of sporting competition.
- The policy of the NOAS is that this duty carries with it an obligation for the official to perform with accuracy, consistency, objectivity and the highest sense of integrity.
- The NOAS recognises that to preserve and encourage confidence in the professionalism and integrity of officiating, ethical behaviour must first be fostered by officials.
- The NOAS will promote this in the wider community.

Sports officials have the right to expect that:

- Their health and safety is paramount,
- They are treated with respect and openness,
- They are appointed to a level of competition appropriate to their level of competence,
- They have access to self-improvement opportunity.

The Bowls Australia Official's Code of Ethics includes:

- Placing the safety and welfare of the participant above all else,
- Accepting responsibility for all actions taken,
- Acting impartially,
- Avoiding any situation which may lead to a conflict of interest,
- Being courteous, respectful and open to discussion and interaction,
- Valuing the individual in the sport,
- Seeking continual self improvement through study, performance appraisal, and regular updating of competencies,
- Encouraging inclusive practices and access to all areas of officiating,
- Being a positive role model in behaviour and personal appearance.

I agree to the following terms:

1. I agree to abide by the Bowls Australia Code of ethics,
2. I acknowledge that Bowls Australia may take disciplinary action against me if I breach the code of ethics. I understand that Bowls Australia are required to implement a complaints-handling procedure in accordance with the principles of natural justice, in the event of an allegation against me
3. I acknowledge that disciplinary action against me may include de-accreditation from the Bowls Australia National Officiating Accreditation Scheme.
